Proxy Instructions

A member who is entitled to vote at a meeting may appoint:

- (a) one proxy if the member is only entitled to one vote; and
- (b) one or two proxies if the member is entitled to more than one vote.

Where more than one proxy is appointed, each proxy may be appointed to represent a specific proportion of the member's voting rights. If the appointment does not specify the proportion or number of votes each proxy may exercise, each proxy may exercise half of the votes in which case any fraction of votes will be disregarded.

The proxy form must be signed by the member or their attorney duly authorised in writing or, if the member is a corporation, in a manner permitted by the Corporations Act.

A proxy given by a foreign corporation must be executed in accordance with the laws of that corporation's place of incorporation.

The proxy may, but need not, be a member of the Company.

Corporate Representatives

Any corporation which is a member of the Company may authorise (by certificate under common seal or other form of execution authorised by the laws of that corporation's place of incorporation, or in any other manner satisfactory to the chairperson of the Meeting) a natural person to act as its representative at any general meeting.

Voting Entitlement

For the purposes of the Corporations Act and Corporations Regulations shareholders entered on the Company's Register of Members as at Tuesday, 19 August 2025, being the date 48 hours before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.
